SAFETY CORNER

Protecting what matters most

STORM SEASON IS HERE

Thunderstorms can bring strong winds, heavy rain, lightning, and unexpected power outages. Taking a few simple precautions ahead of time can help keep your family safe and you better prepared when severe weather strikes.

Follow these safety tips to stay prepared and protected:

- ✓ Have an emergency kit ready.
- ✓ Stay away from downed power lines.
- ✓ Report outages and hazards right away.
- ✓ Listen to local alerts and know where to shelter.

MEMBER NOTICE Allegiant[®] UTILITY SERVICES

Beginning this month, New-Mac Electric Cooperative is partnering with Allegiant Utility Services for ongoing system maintenance.

Members in Newton County may see servicemen replacing electric meters throughout the area. Crews will be driving white pickup trucks displaying both the New-Mac Electric and Allegiant Utility Services logos for easy identification. During the meter changeout, members may experience a momentary service interruption.

We're proud to continue investing in reliable service for the communities we serve.

BEHIND THE POWER

Meet Bob Harris

Bob Harris began his career in 1982 and serves as a Foreman at New-Mac Electric Cooperative. With more than four decades of experience and dedication, Bob continues to play an important role in serving our members and supporting his crew each day.

Thank you, Bob, and all our crews for the difference you make every day!

DID YOU KNOW?

Quick facts. Big impact

Ceiling fans should rotate counterclockwise in the summer to help keep rooms cooler and reduce energy use.

Unplugging electronics you're not using can help lower "phantom" energy use that still adds to your electric bill.

Air conditioning accounts for one of the largest portions of summer energy use in most homes.

COMMUNITY Matters

We are proud to power more than homes - we power partnerships, opportunities and brighter futures across the communities we serve.

Community is at the heart of everything we do at New-Mac Electric Cooperative. From supporting local students and community events to investing in programs that strengthen our towns, we're proud to serve the people and places that make this area home.

This month, we're celebrating scholarship recipients, youth leadership opportunities, and partnerships that help our communities thrive.
